

Fundraising & Publicity

One of our essential operations at Martin House is the ability to raise the necessary funds to help us maintain our high standard of service that we offer.

We have a number of volunteers who help us in the Fund-Raising department. They do all sorts of things from stuffing newsletters, helping with mailshots, helping at events, taking out our publicity caravan and stalls, selling Christmas cards etc.